

Alyssa D. Quill, CEO of Storage Asset Management

Alyssa is an owner of Storage Asset Management (SAM), a third-party management company specializing in self-storage based in York, PA. Alyssa and her partner started the company in 2010. SAM currently operates over 300 facilities in 32 states. Alyssa serves on the Board of Directors for the National Self Storage Association and was the President of the Pennsylvania Self Storage Association. Prior to starting SAM, Alyssa ran the Property Management Division of Investment Real Estate for two years. Quill also served as Vice President of Operations for Extra Space Storage. Before her role in operations, she held positions in the revenue management and finance departments for Extra Space and Storage USA. Prior to her years at Extra Space, she worked in the insurance industry. Quill earned her B.S. degree in Actuarial Science from Penn State University, University Park, PA with additional coursework towards her MBA degree at the University of Memphis. Alyssa lives in Lancaster, PA with her husband and two children. When she's not working, she enjoys traveling, spending time with family, and running.

*136 Everett Rd.
Albany, NY 12205
Tel. 518-431-1106*