

Chris Bombardier
MANAGING DIRECTOR

Chris handles complex legislative, administrative and regulatory matters before all levels of New York State Government. He has a keen understanding of how to navigate high stakes business, political and public policy issues and ensures clients have concise, fact-based arguments to advance their position.

Clients have included Fortune 500 companies, prominent trade associations, real estate developers, pharmaceutical manufacturers, health care providers, automobile manufacturers and municipalities.

Spent 16 years in high-level positions at two large lobbying firms, including ten years as a Partner at the second largest firm in New York State.

Former aide to Assembly Majority Leader Ron Canestrari

J.D. from Albany Law School and his B.S. from the University of Massachusetts Amherst

The Albany Business Review named him to its “40 Under 40” list of rising executives and Politico named him a “Rising Star” in New York government and politics.

*136 Everett Rd.
Albany, NY 12205
Tel. 518-431-1106*