

Christopher Murphy is one half of the Murphy Brothers who own Murphy Brothers Contracting, an award-winning general contracting firm celebrating over 40 years of building and renovating private clubs, self-storage facilities, equestrian facilities, light commercial developments, as well as custom single-family homes, throughout Westchester, the lower Hudson Valley and southern Fairfield county. In 2015, Chris and his brother Sean opened Mamaroneck Self Storage as owner/operators. Among several awards, the building was recognized with a Best of BOMA Westchester County Signature Award specifically for incorporating energy-efficient upgrades into the construction. Chris heads up the Murphy Brothers' efforts to double the size of their current self-storage facility. His construction knowledge along with his roots and connections in the region make Chris Murphy and his team a worthy ally in self-storage construction.
