

Rona Siegel is currently employed by the William Warren Group and handles their East Coast Business Development for their third-party management program. She has extensive experience in real estate spanning the last 25 years in Manhattan, Long Island, New Jersey, and Connecticut. In 2004, Siegel was awarded the Manager of the Year Award from BOMA New York and later relocated to Connecticut where she was actively involved with SoCT BOMA for ten years and was Board President from January 1, 2016, to December 31, 2017. During her various past roles from Commercial Property Manager to Senior Director of Asset Management, she has also been very involved in/around town including as former Chair of New Canaan Parks and Recreation (term expired December 2022). In addition to those accolades, Siegel is most proud of raising two children David (20) and Jackie (18) with her husband Robert. In her spare time, Siegel is an active runner and has completed three (3) New York City Marathons in 1998, 2000, and 2017.

*136 Everett Rd.
Albany, NY 12205
Tel. 518-431-1106*